Dear Kendall,

I would like to personally thank you for the coaching sessions we have had over the past few months. As a result of these training sessions I have improved the quality of my workshops and Powerpoint presentations on data loss prevention and recovery. I understand how interaction with the audience is so important and I now have more confidence when delivering my material to an audience, especially large ones. I also appreciate you attending events I have invited you to and the feedback you provided about my performance and even other speakers' performance. I look forward to my next coaching sessions and taking them to a higher level in 2004. I am confident in your skills as a coach and glad to have you as part of my personal and professional development for years to come.

Sincerely,

Christopher D. Bomar, President
