RE: Kendall C. Wright

The Small Business Development Center at the School of Business, University of Wisconsin-Madison has conducted a broad array of training to working adults for many years. We have conducted our popular series, "Perspectives for Success" for large audiences of working women for 17 years.

Mr. Wright recently presented at one such program for us, "The Dynamics of Leadership," and was highly successful. He was the first man ever to present to this group in seventeen years. The evaluation scores were very high; participants and management alike were delighted with the presentation.

I recommend Kendall without reservation. Please contact me if I can provide additional information.

Yours truly,

Scott Savage
