

Kendall-isms

"Where there is prolonged strife and evaporated hope, there you will also find an absence of Leadership." – Kendall C. Wright

"Sugarcoated feedback creates cavities in performance." – Kendall C. Wright

"If you can't work with people, people won't work for you!" – Kendall C. Wright

"Today's express-paced, metamorphic, seemingly capricious, corporate landscape requires a proactive approach to career planning and self development." – Kendall C. Wright

"When we speak of our possibilities, we stir up our possessed abilities." – Kendall C. Wright

"Your Success As A Leader Is Measured By Your Impact Not By Your Intention." – Kendall C. Wright

"What You Ignore Becomes More. What You Tolerate Will Soon Take Over. What You Challenge - Will Change." – Kendall C. Wright

"A single dimensional leader becomes a multidimensional liability in a multicultural organization." – Kendall C. Wright

"Sharing information accelerates the organizational learning curve; withholding information will flatten your bottom line." – Kendall C. Wright

"Leaders today face no greater challenge than to lead with competence, confidence, and congruence of walk and talk." – Kendall C. Wright

"Without accountability there can be no real achievement." – Kendall C. Wright

"It's hardly an accident that optimistic and opportunity share a common beginning. It's most evident that those who are the most optimistic find more opportunities." – Kendall C. Wright

"Our associate will forgive us of mistakes made out of ignorance, but they will never forget mistakes made out of arrogance." – Kendall C. Wright